

Worksheet “What if there were no diplomats?”

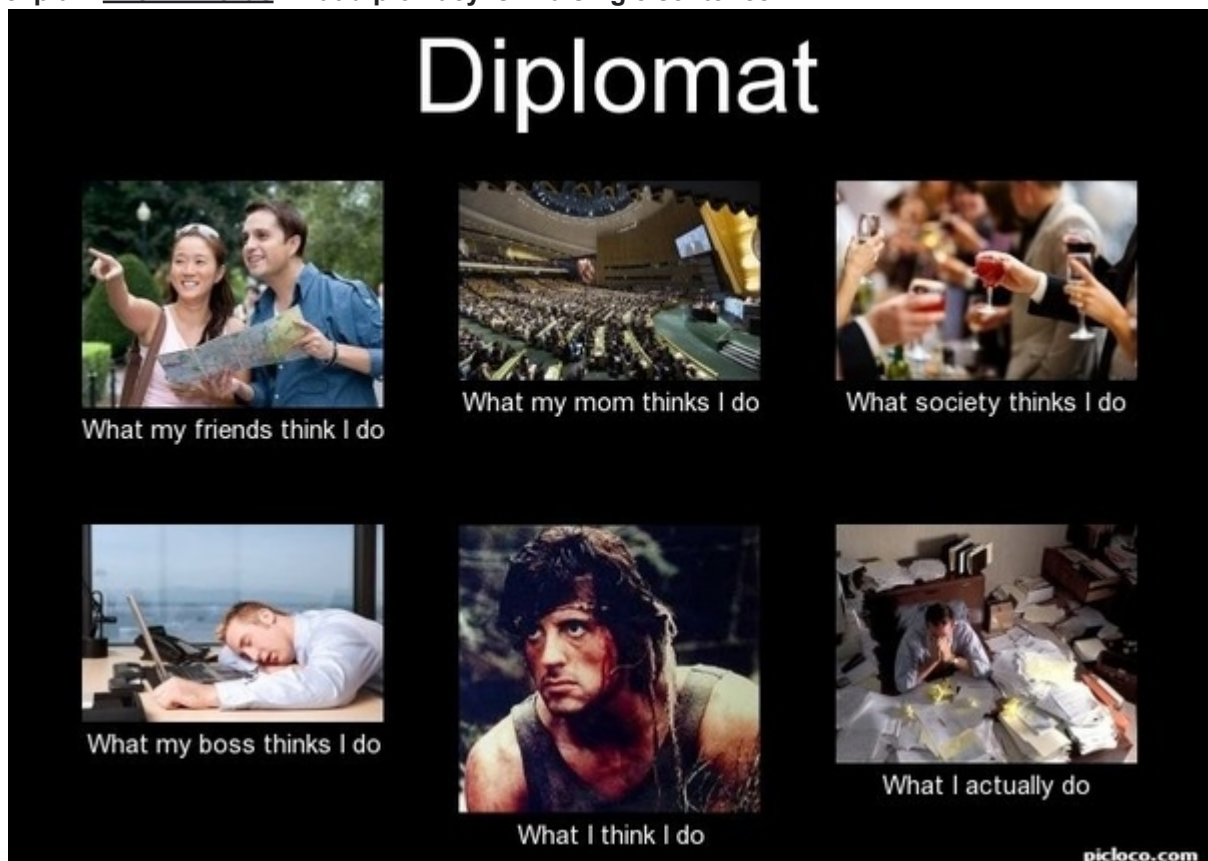

Diplomacy is essential to keep peace among nations, organizations and individuals. In today’s e-lesson you will learn what diplomacy is using the example of the close bilateral relations between the UK and Estonia.

Use the worksheet as follows:

- Answer the question before the live stream
- Ask questions during live stream
- After the live stream have a discussion with your classmates and complete the exercise.

BEFORE THE LIVE STREAM

A diplomat is a person appointed by a state or an intergovernmental institution such as the United Nations or the European Union to conduct diplomacy with one or more other states or international organisations. Look at the comical photo below. Using google for further information, try to explain in own words what diplomacy is in a single sentence.

Diplomacy is ...

DURING THE LIVE STREAM

You have a chance to ask questions for the guest lecturer during the live stream. To do so add your question to Youtube chat as follows:

Kaari 12. Form, Kurtna School. How do you become a president?

Please be polite and precise while forming your question. Your questions are visible to everyone watching the live stream. The sooner you send your question, the more likely we are able to answer it.

AFTER THE LIVE STREAM MAKE MEMES

Memes are often humorous photos that communicate relevant information or commentary about certain topics. Your assignment is to create 3 memes about diplomacy. Here are some thoughts about possible subjects to show through memes:

- What is diplomacy?
- The importance and need for diplomacy.
- What do diplomats do?
- What if there were no diplomats?
- Bilateral relations between UK and Estonia.
- Your own thoughts on the live stream

To create a meme, visit the website <https://makeameme.org/>. Choose a suitable template, edit text and click "Make a meme". Make a right click and copy or save the photo and present the meme according to the instructions from your teacher.
